TERMS OF THE GAZETTE

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION .- One year (52 issues) $1.50; six months, 75 cts; three months, 40 cents. BATES OF ADVERTISING .- One hoin first insertion, $1; each subsequent insertion, 50 cents; displayed advertisement will be charged according to the space occu pied at above rates. TO REGULAR ADVERTISERS we offer superior inducements, both as to rate of charges and manner of displaying their NOTICES IN LOCAL COLUMNS-10

OBITUARY NOTICES, Tributes of Respect and Cards of Thanks charged for as regular advertisements. ALL BILLS for advertising are due when contracted and payable on demand. COMMUNICATIONS must be accompanied by the true name and address of the writer in order to receive attention.

THE MORRISTOWN GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 28, 1881.

DEATH OF THE PRESIDENT. The announcement made in our Last issue of the death of President Garfield was not premature. He died at Long Branch Monday night, September 19, at 10:35 o'clock. In no words that we can use, nor sorrowful emblems that may be exposed can the great grief of the Amermore than eleven long, weary, painful weeks have the people of the United States sat sorrowing under the shadow of the impending calamity threatened by the bullet of the without provocation, without excuse, without reason, struck down the President of the Nation. His assassination is a terrible event in its history, but we have an abiding faith The Aged Mother Hears the Awful that the good sense and patriotism of the American people can be safely relied upon to take care of the Republic. If sympathy and the prayers of men, women and children could have turned aside this seeming National affliction, then had James A. Garfield, our martyred President, been spared. Such was not to be. Shortsighted as we are, we cannot understand that Provimakes no blunders, mistakes or acdevoid of malice to living man, with worth, is a striking Providencereflecting reader will see exemplifiand from the North and the South, oped in the gloom cast around them and the Government at Washington been taught, a modest yet honored try was in danger of dismemberand finally at the National Capital, sorrow at the news. He saw one of the pretty soon." ored distinction of Chief Magistrate of a country extending across a continent and numbering fifty millions of people, what man has ever enjoyed a more wonderful rise from joyed a more wonderful rise from the first of the profile and the first of the profile and the profile and the profile and the people watch in general welfare, the profile and th joyed a more wonderful rise from ing with eager and sorrowful eyes the obscurity, or what genius has been movements of those visible about the flamel cloth, bested it at the fire and the nation shall profit by his examble as customary, and then went inobscurity, or what genius has bewn his way to greatness with a more heroic effort, or a nobler or more determined resolution? At the age of forty-nine James A. Garfield had linked his name to the proudest place among the civilized nations of the earth. And who dare say he did not was a say he did to the property of t earth. And who dare say he did occur and the President pull through. earth. And who dare say he did not deserve the distinction? Had he been born of kings he might have, he been born of kings he might have, by the accident of birth, secured the fact that the President had reached took hold of his hand. I was on the princely honors, but being only an that point where recovery selected in left-hand side of the bed as he lay. I American lad of indomitable cour-age he reached his lofty place by his own achievements, and from the canal boy became President before he was fifty years old. In no other he was not to be expected, and that no furregion of his heart. I asked him if I could do anything for him. He said:

"Some water." I went to the other of the dead President. Many touching two departments of the government, loving heart lay on the shelf, and, seenes were witnessed, and that no furregion of his heart. I asked him if I could do anything for him. He said:

"Some water." I went to the other bring grief and anguish to her two departments of the government, loving heart lay on the shelf, and, seenes were witnessed, and that no furregion of his heart. I asked him if I could do anything for him. He said:

"Some water." I went to the other side of the government, loving heart lay on the shelf, and, seenes were witnessed, and that no furregion of his heart. I asked him if I could do anything for him. He said:

"Some water." I went to the other side of the character of the could do anything for him. He said:

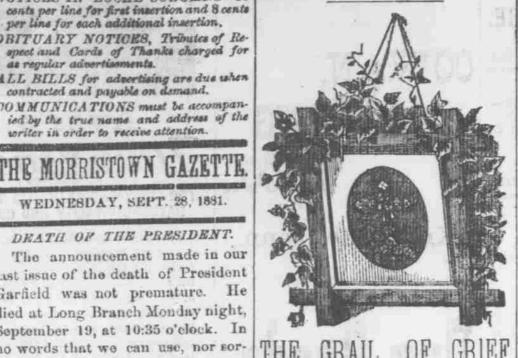

"Some water." I went to the other side of the character of the character of the could do anything for him. He said:

"Some water." I went to the other him. He said:

"Some water." I wen death of the President at 10:35 to might. Having become the President by an undeniable choice of the whole people, he gave promise of an administrative ability that is rare among those who reach that office. He had country but ours is this possible. death of the President at 10:35 to night. and a-half of Poland water into a glass and he must answer for the just ex- seeing it, she took it, and was about evident that a deeper feeling than trative ability that is rare strong those who reach that office. He had the context of the confidence of all sections of the confidence of all sections of the confidence of all sections and all parties that he would govern and all parties that he would govern the country, not as a factorial President of the whole people. His fame will rest all the strength of the country, not as a factorial presidence and and all of Gelles, the third is the strength of the country, not as a factorial presidence and the country of the cou still lives."

ican people be portrayed. For Overflows with Bitter Tears from Out a Stricken Nation's Wounded Heart!

accursed assassin, Guiteau, who, Death of the President.

THE END OF A NOBLE LIFE.

News and Prays for Death.

SCENES AND INCIDENTS.

LONG BRANCH, Sept. 19 -The day dence that strikes down, at such an has been one of the most critical in the hour, so great and good and indispensable a man. But Providence pensable a man. But Providence based on the providence pensable a man. But Providence based on the providence pensable a man. But Providence based on the public pensable a of recove y. To night, if there is the cidents. With his kind, noble heart, saving the President's life, it is based entirely upon the expectation that his stomach will retain the nourishment adhis broad eatholicity of spirit, that ministered and perform its functions covered even those who differed without breaking down. The day has from him, the death of our Chief even the most hopeful of the attendants, Magistrate, just at a time when all expected the President would get through the night without another rigor people of all sections were learning and further relapse, so early this morning before the bulletin was issued, when it became known that the President had gone through the night without any se and a just one, as the thoughtful, rious change for the worse or alarming the East and the West, while envel- men, summer guests, who have stayed with him a good deal of the time from time the offiger elected by the peoby the death of their chief ruler, remember the patriotic words of the departed statesman, "God reigns and the Government at Washington was on hand, and sent brief telegraphic and the Government at Washington with the President the presiden retary Brown said it could not be so, and py people. From the hour when as Attorney General McVeagh looked perpy people. From the hour when as an humble woodchopper by the Northern lakes, a driver of horses for a canal boat, a student at a counand said to The Sun correspondent: "I try school, a teacher where he had is true, the outlook is very dark new.' The news flew far and wide and from all directions of Long Branch came carcollege graduate, a brave officer in riages with sympathizing friends to ashis country's cause when that coun- certain the news. It was not long until the office and porches of the Elberon ment, a legislator in his own State the outlook. Gen. Grant was one of the whence he finally rose to the hon- surgeons for a moment and then said, > to the West End fully impressed with his head on awakening, I arose and was not to be expected, and that no fur- right hand on his breast, about over the gion of the heart, and almost immedi-

"D. W. BLISS, "FRANK H. HAMILTON, "D. HATES AGNEW." ELBERON, N. J., Sept. 19, 11.20 P. M. -Attorney-General MacVeagh just came to the Elberon Hotel from the Franklyn cottage and made the following statement : "I sent my dispatch to Minister Lowell at 10 P. M. Shortly before that Dr. Bliss had seen the President, and found his pulse at 106 beats per minute, and all the conditions were then promising a quiet night, The Doctor asked the President if he was feeling uncomfortable in any way. The President answered, 'Not at all,' and soon af erwards fell asleep, and Dr. Bliss returned to his room, across the hall from that occupied by the President. Cols. Swaim and Rockwell remained with the President, About 10.15 the President awoke and remarked to Col Swaim that he was suffering great pain, and placed his hand over his heart. Dr. Bliss was summoned, and when he entered the room he found the President substantially without pulse and the action of the heart was almost indistiuguishable. He said at once that the President was dying, and directed that INAUGURAL ADDSESS OF GEN Mrs. Garfield be called, also the doctors. ARTHUR. The President remained in adving con-M., are in consultation.

THE EFFECT IN NEW YORK. not unexpected, had a depressing effect on the citizens who learned of the news any cheering news of the President's sorrow were heard on all sides. The news spread with lightning-like rapidity throughout the city, and is the unitolled at short intervals for an hour in memory of the departed President. One STORY OF THE LAST DAY. after the news was received, copies of full robe of office, accompanied by about one-third of an inch in diameafternoon paper issued an extra shortly which were largely purchased at any

THE EFFECT IN WASHINGTON. nore excitement and greater solicitude in the city to day regarding the Presithose who had hitherto maintained a his death was received, at 10:45 o'clock. It created a little surprise, but every heart that hears of it to night is grieved and the deep feeling of sadness is not confined to personal or political friends of the dead President, but is universal.

SWAIM'S STATEMENT.

4 p. m.-Judge Advocate-General Swaim, who has been with President symptoms, joy was everywhere visible. Swaim, who has been with President Like a drowning man catching at a Garfield continuously since he was shot, cations of on all sides. In the darkened sky of the present, a united people see the rainbow of promise,

At eight o'clock this morning there and who was the only one with the protracted sufferings, his unyielding fortitude, the example and achievethat were soon to disappear in the air.

At eight o'clock this morning there

At eight o'clock this morning there

The stated further that the patient's death was inented sufferings, his unyielding fortitude, the example and achievements of his life and the pathos of his death, will forever illumine the Press today: "It was my right to be protracted sufferings, his unyielding fortitude, the example and achievements of his life and the pathos of his death, will forever illumine the was a happy gathering about the Elber. Press to-day: "It was my right to on, of government officials, newspaper watch with the President. I had been longer than they expected, because an uncontrollable sympathy with the Pres-

I asked her what had been prescribed for him to take during the night. room and see what is to be given during the night."

I found Dr. Bliss there, and asked him afternoon, the pulse varying from 102 to Col. Rockwell came in. Dr. Bliss said : ately became unconscious, and ceased to following persons were present: Mrs. breath at 10.30 o'clock.

Garfield and Molly, Drs. Bliss, Agranged

C. O. Reckwell and Daniel Sprigg.

ELBERON, Sept., 20 4.20 p. m — General Arthur left for New York on a of Washington, have arrived, and an autopsy will soon be made. The members of the cabinet have just gone to their respective quarters. General Grant accompanied General

New York, Sept. 19.-The news of Gen. Grant, ex-President Hayes. the President's death, althought it was Rear-Admiral Nichols, Hon. Hannihour before the event between the both sides, with bronchial peneuhope, and when the bulletins were put President, Secretary Blaine and the monia of the lower portions of the up announcing that the President was Attorney-General. Very few perdead, genuing expressions of regret and sons knew that the oath was to tent on the left. The lungs contain be administered until the ceremony no abscesses, and the heart no clots. was over. The Presidentand memversal topic of conversation. The bells bers of the cabinet had assembled in but free from abscesses, nor were of the churches of Trinity Parish were the Marble Room shortly before any found in any other organ exnoon. A few minutes before 12 cept the left kidney, which containo'clock, Chief Justice Waite, in his ed near its surface a small abscess the Associate Justices, proceeded from the Supreme Court room to the Marble Room. The doors were formality President Arthur rose and supporating surfaces, and especially President's manner was calm and blind faith in the happy issue of this na- composed, and his response, "So There was a settled gloom over the without a tremor. The President whole city when the sad intelligence of then read from manuscript the following address: PRESIDENT ARTHUR'S INAUGURAL.

> istrate has been removed by death. horror at the hideous crime which has darkened our land, and the memory of the murdered President, his country must make repose especially ed. She eguld not blast the hope welcome now, No demand for speedy expressed in that voice and exhibilegislation has been heard, and no ted in that dear old face. "Eat your adequate occasion is apparent for an | breakfast, mother; it is ready now.'

166, with rather increased force and volume. After taking nourishment be fell ume. After taking nourishment be fell ume. After taking nourishment be fell was made this constitution of the body of th ume. After taking nourishment be fell in a few moments airs, Garneld came in and said: 'What does this mean?' and into a quiet sleep about thirty-five minutes before his death, and while asleep utes before his death, and while asleep the control of the presence and with the ceremonies began, in the presence of Drs. Hamilton, rival of James Palmer, husband of a ence of thousands guests, multitudes the assistance of Drs. Hamilton, Agnew. Bliss, Barnes, Woodward, Reyburn, and W. H. Smith, of Elberon, and Acting Assistant Surgeon Lamb, of the Army Medical Museum, at Washington. The operation was performed by Dr. Lamb.

In the presence and with the assistance of Drs. Hamilton, Agnew, Bliss, Barnes, Woodward, Reyburn, and W. H. Smith, of Elberon, and Acting Assistant Surgeon Lamb, of the Army Medical Museum, at Washington. The operation was performed by Dr. Lamb.

It is therefore of thousands guests, multitudes blocking all the adjacent streets for squares around. There was one continuous wall of people on either side. The funeral train passed nearly the whole way along Euclid avenue.

It is therefore ordered by the Clerk and master than the presence of thousands guests, multitudes blocking all the adjacent streets for squares around. There was one continuous wall of people on either side. The funeral train passed nearly the whole way along Euclid avenue. his pulse rose to 120 and was somewhat more feeble. At 10.18 o'clock he awoke more feeble. At 10.18 o'clock he awoke pleted. He breathed his last calmly and room later of severe pain over the re-Garfield and Molly, Drs. Bliss, Agnew and Boynton, General Swaim, Colonel seum, at Washington. The operation has been and Mrs. Rockwell, J. Stantly Brown, tion was performed by Dr. Lamb. he is gone. Oh, I cannot have it so." It was found that the ball after frac-turing the right eleventh rib, had passed through the spinal column in the morning paper arived. The autopsy made of the dead not to read it, she insisted on it, and President is a relief to the country bræ, and driving a number of small exclaimed: "I cannot read any of the President, and that his death fragments of bone into the adjacent more." Then she went to her room was due directly to the wound insoft parts, and lodging below the and laid down, but soon arose and flicted by the hand of the assassin. General Grant accompanied General Arthur, arm in arm, to the carriage with the conveyed him to the Elberon depot, and as the carriage returned empty it is presumed that he went to New York with him on the special train.

ELBERON, Sept. 20.—The statement that the ball was found in the region of the heart has been verified, and it is stated on authority that the developments of the autopsy prove that death was interested and the president's life was one evitable, and the President's life was one examined and heart and believed and the president's life was one examined and heart the ball. Bood rupturing the autopsy prove that death was interested a granddaughter to read to her further, listening with blind to her further, listening with blind in his cell, the cowardly Guiteau, will therefore be dealt with to the making noble efforts to restrain her emotions. During the afternoon dary, hemorrhage from one of the mesentric arteries, adjoining the hind the peritoneum, where it became completely encysted. The immaking noble efforts to restrain her emotions. During the afternoon assured, the better.

Chattanooga had a terrible and heart lead of the ball, blood rupturing the autopsy prove that death was interested a granddaughter to read to her further, listening with blind in his cell, the cowardly Guiteau, will therefore be dealt with to the making noble efforts to restrain her emotions. During the afternoon assured, the sum of the better.

Chattanooga had a terrible and heart leaden pencreas, about two inches and a requested a granddaughter to read The miserable wretch now cowering ly sustained by his most excellent nourtails of the autopsy are being compiled and will soon be made public.

The debend the cause of the severe pain in the lower part of the chest, comthe lower part of the chest, complained of just before his death, an abscess cavity six inches by four in abscess cavity six inches and a six inches and a six inches and a six inches are a six inches and a six inches and a six inches are a six inches and a six inches and a six inches are a six inches and a dimensions was found in the vicinity nest Christian, if there ever was one. and were returning home, when we WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Arthur took the oath of office dent Arthur took the oath of oath office dent Arthur took the oath of oath office dent Arthur took the oath of oath office dent Arthur took the oath office dent Arthur took the oath office dent Arthur took the oath of oath office dent Arthur took the oath The President remained in adying condition until 10.35, when he was producted dead. He died of some trouble nounced dead. He died of some trouble of the heart, supposed to be neuralgia, but that of course is uncertain. I notified General Arthur and sent a dispatch to Messrs, Blaine and Lincoin, patch to Me Representatives, all who could be tended from the external of the The following has just been receivnotified during the morning in time wound, between the loin muscles ed from the Department of State: to be present; also Gen. Sherman, and the right kidney, almost to the right groin. This channel, now known to be due to the burrowing bal Hamlin, Gen. Beale, and a few of pus from the wound, was supposto night. Crowds of people had sur- others. Forty people in all were ed, during life, to be the track of

> In reviewing the history of the case in connection with the autopsy

> The liver was enlarged and fatty,

(Signed) D. W. Bliss, Frank H. new, J. J. Woodward, Andrew H. sixth. Smith, Robert Reyburn, D. S. Lamb. Elberon, N. J., Sept. 21.—Dr. Bliss stated at a late hour last night that the autopsy had been very tedi-"For the fourth time in the his- ous, and that the time occupied in tory of the Republic its Chief Mag- searching for the ball alone was nearley three quarters of an hour. All hearts are filled with grief and In reply to an inquiry the Doctor said that since the conclusion of the autopsy Mrs. Garfield was feeling much relieved, as it established the protracted sufferings, his unyielding fact that the patient's death was inhis death, will forever illumine the what blunt or in a battered condipages of our history. For the fourth tion, caused by the force by which

GARFIELD'S MOTHER.

BREAKING THE SAD NEWS. was on hand, and sent brief telegraphic darbeid string by his old that the government were no other persons in the room. I should never be imperiled because add to her: "How is everything good the uncertainty of human life. Special says, "was the query, this ly on this subject that it is supposed to the uncertainty of human life." As a man President Garneld was exalted by the distinction of being the President had another rigor of a the chief ruler of a great and hap the chief ruler of a great and hap
the chief ruler of a great and hapcould exist of the strength and per- o'clock bulletin Monday evening, in Providence, several days ago, She then said: "There is beef tea strain, except the sorrow which lants was found to be necessary. Bayard will arrive here to night to down stairs ; Daniel knows where to get | mourns the bereavement. All the Though hoping against hope, she take charge and direct the Senate what was to be given during the night." In his life, the measures devised and He answered, "I think I had better fix up a list and will bring it into you tration to correct abuses and enforce economy, to advance prosper- usefulness. There are so many men political parties respectively, re-I then want back into the surgeon's ity and promote the general welfare, who are of no use to any one who questing them to direct the Senate unusual session of Congress. The But I want to hear from my tunda of the capitol at Washington,

By a previous arrangement a post- of another year. James is gone, and THE FUNERAL AT CLEVELAND, Notice to Creditors of John La

"By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

"Whereas, The object of interest in number than those furnished by on the citizens who learned of the news to night. Crowds of people had surrounded the bulletin boards at the different newspaper offices in the course of the evening and waited patiently for the evening and waited patiently for any other state in after a confirmance was held about an after a confi to the United States require that the any other State; not only more in after a conference was held about an severe bronchitis were found on such communications as may be the Confederacy. made to it, on the part of the Exe-

"Now, therefore, I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, have considered it to be my duty to issue this, my Proclamation, market. EARNEST & BRISCOE. declaring that an extraordinary oc easion requires the Senate of the U. S. to convene for the transaction of business at the Capitol in the City of Washington, on Monday, the 10th of Octobor next, at noon. On that day of which all who shall at that time be entitled to act as members Washington, Sept. 19.—There was immediately closed, and withoutany it is quiet evident that the different of that body, are hereby required to take notice. Given under my thousand eight hundred and eighty- We invite the attention of our readers one, and of the Independence of the to the advertisement of the Buckeye [Signed] CHESTER A. ARTHUB. By the President. JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROPERTY. It is stated that President Garfield left no will, and during his sickness he said he did not wish to make one; that he was willing to trust to the courts of the country to make an equitable division of his property among the members of his family. The value of his property is about $25,000, including his house in this city, which is mortgaged.

THE EXTRA SESSION. Senators Logan and Don Cameron are very positive in the opin-ion that President Arthur will con-"Who shall break the news to vene the Senate in special session

MOURNFUL SCENES AT THE CAP-

Washington, Sept. 22.—All day yesterday a constant stream of men and women poured through the ro-ferty, Deceased.

persons having claims against the estate of John Lafferty deceased, to come forward and present them and make themselves parties to said bill within four mentils from the first day of October, 1881 or they will be come.

BEATTY Someans 18 useful stops, 5 sets reed catalog. Fars. Address unevry. Washington, N.J. regiments, 10 battalions, and 14 un-

For Sale.

PORTABLE STEAM SAW

VASSAR COLLEGE. Shoe for your Daughters, call and Mrs. Lou Flynn's stock of hats and bonnets for the fall and winter trade is the largest, prettiest and

She invites an inspection of her BAZAR GLOVE-FITTING PATTERNS. -Ladies sending us their address will receive our fall catalogue. ANGEL & JENKINS.

N. C., Sepator Vance stated that that State furnished to the armies of the Confederacy no less than 82

attached companies, numbering altogether 122,000 men, being more

If you want a good, strong School

Knoxville, Tenn. Hamilton, H. Barnes, D. Hayes Ag- United States the one hundred and M'rg Co., Marion, Ohio, in another column. They offer aree inducements to earn as honest living.

Suffering Women.

There is but very small proportion of the women of this nation that do not suffer from some of the lisenses for which Kidney-Wort is specific. When the bowels have ecome costive, headache torments. kidneys out of fix, or piles distress, take a package and its wonderful tonic and renovating power will cure you and give new life .- Watch-

The autopsy made of the dead special trains few minutes sgo.

The attending surgeons who recently within four usenths from the spinal canal, fracturing within four usenths from the first lumber verter withdrew from the case and Dr. Lamb, the body of the first lumber verter while, and then throwing it down the case and Dr. Lamb, the body of the first lumber verter or and smake themselves parties to said bill in this: it is conviction that no medical skill could have saved the life and smake themselves parties to said bill in this: it is conviction that no medical skill could have saved the life and smake themselves parties to said bill in this: it is conviction that no medical skill could have saved the life and smake themselves parties to said bill in this: it is conviction that no medical skill could have saved the life and smake themselves parties to said bill in this: it is conviction that no medical skill could have saved the life. CHANCERY SALE OF LAND.

portion thereof is now stoder cullivation.

Sept. 22, 1881. JOHN MURPHEY, C. & M.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.,

most varied she has ever invoiced.

Ergm of Principles: Con-Brown of Principles: greek Strengense, Minings, June 20th, 19th - Francisco in control of the Fastelles. The patient on whom I have a got a as box, in addition to a sample box, is fast Sectioning,

ANGEL & JENKINS

[Successors to S. P. ANGEL,]

KNOXVILLE, - - - TENNESSEE,

Solo Agents for East Tennessee for the Celebrated Light-Running WHITE SEWING MACHINE

And Dealers in all First-Class Machines,

Needles, Oils, Parts and Findings.

fully installed without shock or that the administration of stimu- out delay. Senators Anthony and Machines Repaired (and warranted) by the Finest Machinest mourns the bereavement. All the noble aspirations of my lamented noble aspirations of my lamented predecessor which found expression ate danger. 'He will live,' she said take charge and direct the Senate charge and dire

C. B. HOLLEY. HEADQUARTERS FOR FURNITURE

East side of Main street, above Postoffice,

PICTURES AND IPCTURE FRAMES,

BED SPRINGS, from 4 feet to 4 1-2. All articles of Furniture made to order and Knoxville pricuplicated. Orders by mail receive prompt attention. Of the me a trial.

KNOXVILLE

Foundry and Machine Company,

Successors to ROGAN, KELLEY & CO.,

such a vast assemblage together. K.N.O. X VILLE, - - TENNENSEE. MANUFACTURERS OF